Appointment of Emmanuelle Greth as Director of Human Resources and Sustainable Development at Galeries Lafayette

Paris, June 4th 2024

Galeries Lafayette announces the appointment of Emmanuelle Greth as Director of Human Resources and Sustainable Development for Galeries Lafayette, effective immediately. In her new role, Emmanuelle Greth will be responsible for supporting talent management and change management within the company, pursuing the development of an attractive employer brand, and ensuring commitment to the company's ongoing transformation to establish itself as the French leader in committed retailing. She reports to Nicolas Houzé, Chief Executive Officer, and joins the Executive Committee.

After starting her career with Hewlett-Packard, Emmanuelle Greth spent twelve years as Director of Human Resources at Canal+. She then joined the Louvre Hotels group as Human Resources Operational Director, before being promoted to Human Resources Director. In 2015, she joined Guerlain, where she worked for five years as Human Resources Director. Since 2020, she has been Human Resources Director for Sephora's EME region.

Emmanuelle Greth holds a master's degree in labor law from Université Panthéon Assas and a master's degree in Human Resources from CELSA.
